Exchange.

A clever French comedian, when a young and struggling actor in Paris, hit on an ingenious plan to save himself the walk from the theatre after rehearsal to his lodgings, which were situated near Montmartre cemetery. He dressed in black, and, if he espied a funeral procession with a vacant seat in any of the coaches, promptly pulled out a handkerchief, and bid his face in it while hailing the vehicle. Under the impression that he was one of the mourners arrived late, he was, of course, immediately arrived late, he was, of course, immediately tte, he was, of course, immediately in the vacant seat. This went on time, till one unlucky day the impted to talk to his companions mother. "I alluded to his conorcia, mother, is an incident," said the unhappy actor. "But he had none!" cried the mourners in chorus; and none!" cried the mourners in chorus;

Judging from the tone of our exchanges Henry G. Davis is not entirely off the track. Figuratively speaking the Senatorial bull butted at him, and got in a side wipe, but it only partially knocked him off the bridge; he is still sticking on to the girders, so to to speak.

Parkersburg Sentinel.

"The appearance of Henry G. Davis' letter, declining to have himself considered as a candidate to the United States Senate seems rather to have brought his friends more determinedly to the front in his behalf. It appears now that there has been a general awakening among Mr. Davis' adherents to a realization of the fact that, at this very important time, when approaching events indicate an impending political crisis his services as Senator cannot be dispensed with.

A Sure Cure for Piles.

A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William, (an Indian remedy) called Dr. William's Indian Olniment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of twenty-live years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing needicine. Lotions and instruments do more harm than good. William's Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed,) acts as a poultice, gives instant and paintess relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing class.

In a Western town the other day, a young man was shot at, but the ball lodged in a Testament which was in his vest pocket. There ought to be a beautiful moral in this incident, but, unfortunately, the fact remains and if he had been reading the Testament he would have been killed.

A man who lives at Conyers, Ga., and who must have Yankee blood in him, claims to be the boss swapper in that section. Ten years ago he bought a pocket knife for which he paid $\frac{2}{2}$. He swapped this for a pistol; he swapped the pistol for a shotgun, the gun for a cow, the cow for a horse, and sold the horse for $500$. This he invested in such a manner that he has a capital of $\frac{5}{2}$,000, all the result of his knife-trade.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle.
